

Trust. Guidance. Connection.

Kehila Connect is an Australian company based in Sydney. The company was founded by a team of specialists with considerable experience in the property industry. Importantly, we understand the Australian approach to purchasing property. Our task is to make your search for the perfect Israel-based residential property as simple as possible, and we are able to do this because we have invested our time and skill in sourcing the best team in Israel to work with us in finding your ideal property.

Kehila Connect is dedicated to negotiating meaningful connections for Australians seeking property in Israel. We understand that buying real estate in a foreign country can be complex. Our job is to carefully link you with trusted referral partners who understand both markets. Our mission is to ensure your journey to owning a property in Israel is guided by reliable, respected expertise - every step of the way.
